

South Island Alpine Pacific Triangle

You'll discover an excellent balance of eco-adventure and indulgence on the Alpine Pacific Highway. Begin by exploring Christchurch, a city with a strong arts and heritage focus, then head up the coast towards Kaikoura. Unspoilt beaches get you in the right frame of mind to enjoy the whales, seals and dolphins that live in the area – crayfish is the local specialty food. Waipara's vineyards and olive groves are a highlight of the drive to Hanmer Springs, where hot pools, massage therapies and great restaurants will rejuvenate you. Stop for a beach picnic on the return trip to Christchurch.

The Heart of North Island

This straight-down-the-middle route lets you experience the volcanic heart of the North Island. Auckland's sea and city attractions get you in the holiday mood before the drive to Hamilton, where you can enjoy gardens and a riverboat cruise. The subterranean labyrinth of Waitomo Caves is next, followed by Rotorua's spectacular geothermal and Maori attractions. At Lake Taupo there are more geothermals to see, as well as hot spas to soak in. Follow the lake's edge to Turangi, a renowned trout fishing mecca. The volcanic plateau gives way to farmland on the way to Palmerston North. The Kapiti coast provides entertainment on the last leg of your journey.
